Problem Statement:

Design an interactive and responsive webpage for a Band through which people can buy concert tickets. The relative data should be added to the database, keeping a record of the users and the tickets that are being purchased by the user.

Output

A dark, atmospheric photograph of a concert crowd. Many hands are raised in the air, silhouetted against bright stage lights. The background is filled with orange and red smoke or light effects. In the foreground, the word "NIRVANA" is printed in large, white, sans-serif capital letters. Below it, a block of text reads: "Nirvana is of people for people by people who love music and dancing to their own rhythm. It defines the importance music plays in our life. And how different emotions, different aspects of life can be easily spoken through music." The overall mood is energetic and celebratory.
